

Duracell Headquarters

Project Overview

A corporate commitment to the environment inspired the integration of “green” strategies, including site planning, landscaping, watershed management, habitat and wildlife, energy conservation, water conservation, building material selection, and waste management into Duracell’s new headquarters.

Location:

Bethel Connecticut
United States

Project Owner:

Duracell

Submitting Architect:

Newman Architects

Source URL: <https://www.aiatopten.org/node/532>